Intercultural Studies Application Checklist

Before sending in your Intercultural Studies application, be sure that you have completed and enclosed the following:

- D ALL information.
- D A letter from your pastor, if you are being sent out by a church, or your mission director stating that you are under their mission board and that you will be accountable to them.
- D Prayer card or recent photo.
- D The application fee of $15 PER APPLICANT. If applying after the deadline (July 1st for Fall entry/ December 1st for Spring entry), enclose $20 per applicant. All checks need to be in US Dollars, drawn on a US bank and made payable to RGBI.
- D The housing application and correct housing deposit, if requesting campus housing.
- D Transcripts or diploma from your high school for high school graduates only.
- D Official transcripts, sent to us from ALL schools you have attended since high school.

These items are very important for us to have in order to properly process your application. If your application is received but any of the above items are missing, your application will not be processed until everything is received.
